The Tucson Police Department seeks public assistance with locating a missing elderly male, Mr. John W. Satterfield (85-years old). On the evening of July 3, 2013, Mr. Satterfield was at his residence in the 7500 block of East Speedway with his wife. Mrs. Satterfield retired to bed at approximately 9:30 p.m., leaving Mr. Satterfield watching television. At approximately 11:30 p.m., Mrs. Satterfield awoke and discovered that Mr. Satterfield was no longer in the residence. After learning that their vehicle was also no longer at their house, she called 911 for police assistance at approximately 11:39 p.m. Officer from Operations Division East responded to the residence and immediately began searching for Mr. Satterfield.

Mr. Satterfield is described as a Caucasian male, approximately 6'02" tall, weighing approximately 230 pounds, with white hair and brown eyes. He wears eyeglasses and has a large vertical scar on his stomach area. Mrs. Satterfield was not able to provide a description of what he was wearing when he left their residence, as it is believed that he changed clothing. His vehicle is described as a green 1999 Dodge Caravan bearing Arizona license plate 258JVZ. There is a sticker decal in the rear window of the vehicle, which has been described as looking like a "military chevron with a star in the middle."

Mr. Satterfield suffers from various medical issues and requires regular medication. He also suffers from dementia. On another date, he was reported missing and was not seen for several hours. On that occasion, it is believed that he drove to the Sierra Vista, Arizona area before ultimately returning on his own. It is believed that he has a debit card with him, allowing him access to monetary funds.
